

The Kansas Land Title Association is dedicated to providing service and assistance to the land title industry in Kansas.

KLTA is a statewide trade association founded in 1907 representing approximately 192 members. Membership is comprised of title insurance underwriting companies, title agencies, abstract companies, and individuals who are employed by member companies.

KLTA serves as a central source of information for members through publications, programs and educational seminars. KLTA represents the interests of the land title industry before the Kansas Department of Insurance, the Kansas Legislature, and other government agencies and business groups.

KLTA provides legislative and regulatory representation, gathers and disseminates information, provides education, and enhances the value of the title insurance industry.

The Kansas Land Title Association Political Action Committee is a bi-partisan, voluntary, non-profit, unincorporated association which helps elect candidates who have demonstrated support for the land title insurance industry. The KLTA PAC supports only candidates for Kansas Legislature and statewide political offices

There's so much for you to gain with your Affiliate Membership in KLTA. Here's what a few of our current KLTA members have said about the benefits of being a member:

“Participation in KLTA and its activities has opened up my business to new ideas. Exchanging those ideas and experiences with others who might share common challenges can improve the profitability of your business by changing and enlarging the scope of your business. It just makes good business sense to stay in touch with others in your profession.”

—Polly Ann Epting, Coffey County Land Title Co., Inc.

“Membership in KLTA allows us to network and to find common answers with others in our industry who face the same day to day challenges. The resources and knowledge shared through the title school and continuing education provide everyday solutions to our problems—not to mention everlasting friendships.”

—Doug Simmons, Kansas Title Insurance Corporation

“Not only is KLTA a great way to network with colleagues and friends, it keeps members informed on all the upcoming trends, technology and legal changes in the title business. To stay relevant and be the best title person possible, become a member of KLTA.”

—Deborah Lewis, Taylor Abstract & Title Co., Inc.
